“Neonuance: Contemporary Images/Text/Concepts/Works/Words” is a lecture by artist Harry Gamboa Jr. examining the complex interaction of the urban Chicano artist and network culture. Gamboa will reveal how the utilization of various media (photography, video, performance, internet) can affect awareness regarding real-life/real-time and fictional/artificial events. The presentation of various works and the responses to these works are situated within an overview of his career in a series of storied vignettes.

Harry Gamboa Jr. is a Los Angeles-based essayist, photographer, director and performance artist. Founding member of influential Chicano performance art collective, ASCO, Gamboa’s work has been exhibited nationally and internationally. He is the author of Urban Exile: Collected Writings of Harry Gamboa Jr. (University of Minnesota Press).
